

Michael Bennett is a nationally recognized security and intelligence executive with more than 30 years of leadership at the nexus of national security, global strategy, and technology innovation. As Founder and Principal Advisor of Bennett Global Strategies (BGS), he advises Fortune 500 companies, boards, family offices, and emerging enterprises on geopolitical risk, corporate resilience, crisis management, and insider-threat prevention across global operations.

A Bronze Star recipient and combat veteran, Bennett's leadership has been tested in the world's most volatile environments. Over the course of his career, he has directed operations and crisis response efforts spanning Iraq, Afghanistan, Haiti, and across the Asia-Pacific, providing counsel at the highest levels of government and industry.

At Snap Inc. (Snapchat), he served as Director of Crisis Management and Business Continuity, where he led resilience operations across 62 global sites, advising the CEO and executive leadership on enterprise risk, insider threat, supply chain continuity, and brand protection in one of the fastest-moving technology environments in the world. His work helped shape Snap's global readiness posture and set new standards for business resilience in the tech sector.

Previously, Bennett held senior executive roles across the Office of the Director of National Intelligence, National Security Agency, Defense Intelligence Agency, and Department of Homeland Security, where he oversaw strategic intelligence integration, global partnerships, and crisis operations. As the Senior Defense Official and Defense Attaché in Haiti, he led interagency operations during national emergencies, coordinated humanitarian aid and infrastructure restoration, and served as the U.S. government's senior military representative to the host nation.

A recognized innovator in risk intelligence, Bennett blends national-security-grade tradecraft with corporate strategy to help organizations anticipate disruption and thrive amid uncertainty. His advisory work spans geopolitical analysis, AI-driven risk dashboards, insider-threat frameworks, crisis communications, and continuity of operations for critical enterprises worldwide.

Today, through Bennett Global Strategies, he brings that same precision, integrity, and crisis-tested insight to the private sector—helping clients transform uncertainty into strategic advantage.
